Profile

Kelly develops and facilitates all phases of attorney recruiting initiatives. In addition, she is responsible for law school outreach and developing engagement initiatives in line with firm priorities as well as provides on-site assistance at law schools for on-campus interviewing and events as needed.

Kelly's introduction to the legal profession began as a pre-law advisor at Colgate University and then as the Assistant Director of Admissions at Syracuse University College of Law. Most recently, she expanded her knowledge of the legal job market through her time in the Office of Career Services at Syracuse University College of Law where she served as the employer relations and on-campus interview point of contact.
