Profile

Rich focuses his practice on providing general counsel and litigation services in the areas of labor and employment law, municipal law, and land use and zoning.

Rich served in-house as general counsel to one of New York's largest townships for close to a decade and continues to represent various municipal entities in a general or litigation counsel capacity today. He takes an aggressive approach to defending claims against his clients, aiming to resolve them, whenever possible, in the most efficient manner and at the earliest possible juncture. Recent and representative examples of Rich's litigation results include:

Federal Court

- Futia v. Westchester County Board of Legislators, 852 Fed. Appx. 30 (2d Cir. 2021) (affirming dismissal of various constitutional claims based on absence of standing)
- Donohue v. Wing, 2018 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 158176 (E.D.N.Y. Sep. 17, 2018) (adopted Magistrate's Report and Recommendation and dismissed substantive due process and intimate association claim filed by estate of decedent police officer and his spouse);
