Profile

Stephen is co-chair of the firm's business restructuring, creditors' rights and bankruptcy practice. He concentrates his practice on complex corporate workouts, restructuring and bankruptcies. Stephen has represented clients for more than 40 years concerning all aspects of financial restructuring and bankruptcy matters.

Stephen handles matters which include representation of borrowers in chapter 11 bankruptcy cases, secured and unsecured creditors, creditors' committees, indenture trustees, bondholders, debtor-in-possession financing and exit facilities. He also has extensive experience advising health care institutions and higher education institutions, including colleges, universities, private high schools and charter schools. Stephen has also represented buyers and sellers of distressed assets in out-of-court transactions, including public and private sales. Stephen is a Fellow of the American College of Bankruptcy, which is an honorary public service association composed of bankruptcy judges, attorneys, professors and restructuring professionals whose members are selected by their peers and admitted based upon achievements in the profession. He has also served as an expert witness in state and federal court cases.
